A message from our CEO

30 Mar 2020

These are unprecedented times for us all.

Our primary focus is on the safety and wellbeing of our employees. Those who can are working from home and we have taken measures to protect our most vulnerable people. For our colleagues who work in key production and delivery roles, we have introduced strict safety, hygiene and 2m social distancing measures - our direct delivery teams, for example, are now travelling in separate vehicles and are not entering customer premises.

We have been following Government guidance since the outset of the COVID-19 outbreak and will continue to do so.

The food and drink sector has been identified as having an essential role to play and, along with other food and drink businesses, we are working closely with the Government to support them, helping to keep shop shelves well stocked.

For the time being our sites remain operational and we are extremely grateful to our dedicated employees, and partners, who are ensuring we play our part in sustaining the food and drink supply chain.
